

Raphael Dubus

Senior Vice-President Operations

Raphael Dubus has been appointed Senior Vice-President Operations, reporting to ATR's Chief Executive Officer, Stefano Bortoli, as of September 2019. In this position, he is a member of the company's Executive Committee.

Raphael joined ATR in 2005 as Vice President Quality, up to the end of 2011. Between 2012 and 2016, he held the positions of Vice-President Industry and Head of Manufacturing. In May 2017, he was appointed Accountable Manager of ATR's Production Organisation.

Raphael started his professional career in 1991, working for the French Airworthiness Authorities, as A320/A321 programme certification engineer. From 1993 to 2004, he held different management positions at the French GSAC (the authority in charge of Civil Aviation Safety), dealing with certification, airworthiness, production and maintenance activities related to ATR and Airbus aircraft, including Airbus legacy programmes. He was part of the Concorde's Return to Service team.

Raphael Dubus graduated from the French engineering school ESTACA (Paris) and served in the French Armoured Corps for one year. He is married and has three children.
