An ATR 72-600 in the colors of Air New Zealand will be on display in the static area of the exhibition. Since its launch at the end of 2007, the ATR 72-600 has become the best-selling regional aircraft with less than 90 seats worldwide. The aircraft is equipped with a new glass cockpit avionics suite and the new "Armonia" cabin, featuring with the very latest technological passenger comfort innovations.

About ATR:

Founded in 1981, ATR has become the world leader on the market for below-90-seats regional aircraft. Since its creation, ATR has sold some 1500 aircraft. With more than 25 million flight hours, the ATR aircraft are operated by over 190 airlines over 90 countries. ATR is an equal partnership between two major European aeronautics players, the Airbus Group and Alenia Aermacchi (a Finmeccanica Group company). ATR is ISO 14001 certified.
