

PRESS RELEASE

ATR at the Singapore Airshow 2016

Toulouse, February 11, 2016 – The world's leading turboprop manufacturer ATR will exhibit at the Singapore Airshow, which will be held at Changi Exhibition Centre from February 16-21, 2016.

Practical information:

Booth: ATR will have a booth at E01.

A contract signing ceremony will be held at the ATR booth on Tuesday February 16th, at 11 a.m. The event is open to media attending the airshow.

Static display: the aircraft manufacturer will also exhibit an ATR 72-600 in the colors of MASwings (Malaysia Airlines regional subsidiary) as part of the static display line-up. The aircraft is configured with 72 seats and features the newest navigation aid technologies and the most modern standards in passenger comfort.

ATR in Asia Pacific:

ATR has sold over 250 new aircraft in Asia-Pacific since 2010, representing some 70% of all sales of below-90-seat regional aircraft in the region. When focusing on ASEAN countries, ATR sales represent over 90% of the total orders in the same period.

As of today, some 370 ATR aircraft are operated in the liveries of 60 Asia-Pacific carriers from over 25 countries. The number of ATR aircraft operating in the region has increased by 80% since 2010. In 2014, Asia-Pacific became the region with the largest fleet of ATRs in operation worldwide.

ATR is well established in the Asia-Pacific region. It has representative offices in Singapore, Beijing and Tokyo. ATR also has a training center in Singapore, a training partnership in Bangkok, customer service centers in Singapore and Bangalore, and warehouses in Singapore, Kuala Lumpur and Auckland.

Worldwide, ATR have become the best-selling below-90-seat regional aircraft since 2010, representing 77% of all regional turboprop aircraft sales.

About ATR:

Founded in 1981, ATR is the world leader on the market for below-90-seat regional aircraft. Since its creation, ATR has sold over 1,500 aircraft. With over 28 million flights, ATR models equip the fleets of over 200 airlines in nearly 100 countries. ATR is an equal partnership between two major European aeronautics players, the Airbus Group and Finmeccanica. Its head office is in Toulouse. ATR is ISO 14001 certified.
