

Antonio Di Gennaro

Senior Vice President Finance
& Chief Financial Officer

Antonio Di Gennaro has been appointed as ATR Senior Vice President Finance and Chief Financial Officer as of 1 July 2022 reporting to the Chief Executive Officer and member of the company's Executive Committee.

He brings with him over fifteen years' experience as a Finance and Operations business leader and joins ATR from PZL Świdnik, a Leonardo Helicopters company, where he was Chief Financial Officer and Member of the Management Board from 2018 to 2022.

Prior to this, Antonio has held several international positions in the Aerospace & Defense Industry in both military and civil sectors. He has a strong background in Operations, Manufacturing, Customer Service & Sales, and business integration between cross cultural organisations.

Between 2013 and 2018, he held the position of Deputy General Director and Chief Operations & Chief Finance Office at HeliVert, a Leonardo AW139 Final Assembly Line and Service Center for Russia & CIS, in Moscow. Prior to this, Antonio was Budgeting & Reporting Director at SCAC – a Sukhoi and Alenia Aermacchi Joint Venture from 2010 to 2013. He started his career at Alenia Aermacchi (merged in 2016 into Leonardo) in 2005.

Antonio holds a MSc degree in Industrial & Management Science Engineering from Politecnico di Torino, in Italy and a MBA Program at the Business & Administration School of Louvain, in Belgium.